TOO MUCH LIP SERVICE

"Denial" might as well be Lindsay Lohan's middle name – even when it comes to cosmetic procedures! Despite stepping out with a painfully obvious plumped pout, the 27-year-old tweeted that her lips are "just as they've always been." Beverly Hills-based surgeon Dr. William Bruno begs to differ, saying, "Her upper lip appears to be much larger, which suggests lip augmentation." (The upper lip should naturally be slightly smaller than the lower, he explains.)
